

February 10 Casting Notice Draft

Theatre Prometheus is holding auditions for HE DID IT by Rachel Lynett.

Directed by Lauren Patton

Synopsis:

He did it. They know he did it. But can they ignore his crimes if it means that'll make them famous?

Ada & Lex know Jefferson raped their friend but they need him in order to become a breakthrough. For their show and their dreams to work, they need Jefferson. Ada and Lex must decide if they can alienate their friends for the sake of their careers. And if they can excuse a horrendous crime done by an artistic "genius."

CALL FOR ACTORS - At this time we are specifically looking to expand our casting pool with actors of color who are trans women and/or non-binary. All actors must be comfortable with being referred to with she/her pronouns in character for this show.

Lex - 27-37, queer, not white

Ada - 25-35, queer, not white

Bryn - 25-35, trans woman, cinematographer/director

Theatre Prometheus encourages all people to submit, and does not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, gender (including gender identity and expression), body size, disability, or religious affiliation.

Auditions are:

Tuesday, February 18 7-9PM

Wednesday, February 19 7-9PM

Location will be sent upon audition confirmation.

Rehearsals begin in the second week of March.

Tech is May 2-7

Performances are May 8-23 at CAOS on F (923 F St. NW, Washington, DC)

To request an audition, please send your headshot, resume, date and time preference to prometheusauditions@gmail.com. Upon confirmation, you will be sent a side to prepare.

Actors must be available for all of tech and performances.

Actors will be paid a stipend.